Judge Rogers Annulls Thirty-Nine Naturalization Papers. Upon motion of United States District

Attorney Dyer in the United States District Court yesterday, Judge John H. Rogers, sitting in Judge Adams's place, annulled the naturalization papers of thirty-nine Russlans and Italians. A decree pro confesso had been rendered against the defendants June 6, and yesterday final judgment was entered against them, none of them appearing.

Altogether 120 papers have been set uside by the Federal Court. The action of the Altogether 120 papers have been set uside by the Federal Court. The action of the court is the result or the whelesaie fraudulent naturalization of Russians, italians and Bungarians, for which John Barbagila and Martin Levin were recently convicted in the Federal Courts. Barbagila is serving a three year's seatence in the Penitentary for swearing falsely in securing the naturalization papers for the Italians, and Levin is serving a term of five years for fraudulently securing the papers for Russians. Barbagila and Levin induced a large number of their countrymen to apply for minor naturalization papers in the St. Louis Court of Appeals. They were induced to swear falsely as to the time of their residence, and Barbagila and Levin were their witnesses. Attorney Dyer will ask the court to annul the papers of about 30 more Russians and Italians at the fall term of the Federal Court.

WARM DISCUSSION OVER NEW CHURCH

The Reverend Henry Gardner Objects to Encroachment on His Territory.

PRESBYTERY HEARS ARGUMENT

Pope Avenue Mission Desires to Erect Church and F. West, Secretary, Declares They Have a "Cinch."

The advisability of organizing the Pope Avenue Mission into a regular Presbyterian Church was discussed at length at yesterday's meeting of the St. Louis Presbytery, and called forth spirited speeches from both the prospective members who are in favor of the action, and the Reverend Henry Gardner, paster of the Lee Avenue Presbyterian Church who is opposed to it. The Presbytery granted a hearing to the committee from the mission and ordered that a committee be appointed to organize the church if they see the way clear. This committee will consult the session of the Lee Avenue Church, will theroughly cau-vass the situation, and make a report at the July meeting of the Presbytery. The opposition of M. Gardner to the pros pective church is because he fears it will take from the membership of his church, as many of his congregation live in the He political out that it is the policy and proceedent of Presbyterianism not to endanger the safety of one established church to make another.

APPEAL FOR CHURCH. "Competition is the life of trade. It is infortunate that the two churches are so close to each other, but we are 'Johnny-on-the-spot,' and there are souls to save. If the Presbyterians do not establish a church in this neighborhood the Methodists will. If you will grant our request I am sure that a strong church can be built up, for from our location we have a 'cinch.' " His remarks were listened to with great Interest and some merriment by the min-isters, and had its effect in determining the Mr. Gardner said that the mission had

Mr. Gardner said that the mission had seen established under the care of his burch, and that its members had contributed to the mission's support; that Lee venue was a weak church, not yet self-upporting, and that another congregation is the neighborhood would greatly weaken s chances of ever becoming so. The session of his church was unantiously opposed to the prebytery's granting the request, he said, and had they nown the matter would come up yesteraly would have been present to protest, the asked that the presbytery postpone acon for a month, and give his session an apportunity to present their side of the see.

The Reverend Doctor S. C. Niccolls said that Presbyterians ought not to lose this opportunity of planting a church.

"If we do it will be because we are afraid to make a venture, which does not conform with our spirit," he said. "I have never seen a church that was not to some degree harmed by a colony going out of it, but these things are necessary."

GUARANTEE PASTOR'S SALARY. The petition to the presbytery was signed by sixty-three persons, who guarantee to raise $500 a year for a minister's salary. It is proposed to form an alliance with the Jennings Presbyterian Church, which will hold services in the Penrose street building each Sunday morning and contribute $300 a year. Also to secure an appropriation from the Board of Home Missions of $500 annually.

Henry Schroeder, superintendent of the Sunday school; F. Roeshe, treusurer; F. M. Ackley and F. M. Smith appeared for the mission. The mission was established less than a year ago, and now has a building which cost $2.00 and will seat $30 persons. The "ommittee which was appointed to establish the church consists of the Reverend J. H. Gauss, the Reverend Doctor H. Magill, the Reverend C. L. Chalfant, Elder A. C. Stewart and Elder Robert Ranken.

A petition from the Walmut Park Presspiterian Church asking that a committee A petition from the Walnut Park Presbyterian Church saking that a committee be appointed to investigate the church's affairs was read and granted.

For some time there has been friction at this church between the former pastor, the Reverend Mr. Auf der Heide, and a nort of the congregation. Mr. Auf der Heide resigned, but is still in control of the church as moderator. Elders of the church lave made provision for supplies for the pulpit without consulting the moderator, and this las caused trouble.

The committee appointed consists of the Reverend Doctor S. C. Palmer, the Reverend Doctor David M. Skilling and Elder
S. C. Perkins.

Both men and women are engaged in the enterprise, one sex contributing as much as the other. The hot weather has had no effect upon their arrior, and the first day's sales were encouraging.

The bazaar, which will continue for five days, is given for the benefit of the church, and to defray part of the expenses which will be connected with the annual tent meeting of Markham Memorial Church wilch will soon begin.

Lunch is served every day at noon, and many of the employes of the shoe and cordage factories in the neighborhood have agreed to patronize it. Those who cannot get away from their business are to have their lunch sent to them.

Each evening of the five days, with the exception of Thursday, an entertainment will be given in the church. Thursday evening is the time for the regular prayer meeting and nothing is allowed to interfere.
